A Prayer for Mothers and Motherhood

Lord God, we thank You, the Source of Life, for all those who have welcomed and nurtured our lives. In particular, we thank You for our mothers, who, with trust in You and self-sacrifice beyond description, have made it possible for us to live and praise You today. Give them the reward of their labors.

Today, Lord, we also pray for mothers who are afraid of being mothers. We pray especially for those carrying a child within them, but afraid to bring that child to birth. Look with favor on these, Your daughters, and give them trust and strength. Enable them to give themselves to their children, as You give Yourself to us, and to experience the joys of motherhood. Enable us to do our part to encourage them and provide for their needs. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

For more prayers, see www.PrayerCampaign.org.

Blessed Mothers' Day!
MARY,
HOLY MOTHER
PRAY for US!

Dear St. Malachy Parishioners,

Happy Mothers Day to all of our mothers out there! As we honor and thank all of our mothers this weekend, let us reflect upon the mystery of motherhood through the lens of our spiritual mother. In considering the motherhood of Mary, I find it helpful to revisit the insights of one of my personal favorite pieces of spiritual reading about Our Lady: The Reed of God by Caryll Houselander. In this spiritual classic, Houselander owns the challenges so many disciples of Christ have in relating to this immaculate woman who often seems so far removed from our experience, and shares a glimpse of her own journey of discovering Mary's humanity, in order to be able to better understand her fiat (her yes to the Lord) and to imitate it. This utterly human perspective enables us to understand how pleasing are the often hidden offerings of love made by countless mothers, simply in living out the daily duties of their ordinary life. Houselander reflects, "There are many people in the world who cultivate a curious state which they call 'the spiritual life.' They often complain that they have very little time to devote to 'the spiritual life.' The only time that they do not regard as wasted is the time they can devote to pious practices: praying, reading, meditations, and visiting the church. All the time spent in earning a living, cleaning the home, caring for the children, making and mending clothes, cooking, and all the other manifold duties and responsibilities, is regarded as wasted. Yet it is really through ordinary human life and the things of every hour of every day that union with God comes about. Although human nature is the material which God has made for the fulfilling of His will in us, and although human nature is something we share, and although we each have the same purpose of knowing and loving God, we do not all achieve that purpose in the same way or through the same experiences; in fact, no two people have exactly the same experience of God; there seem to be rules of love like the rules of music, but within them each soul has her secret - with God." So, to all of the mothers who have ever felt like your offerings of love go unnoticed and unappreciated, may you find intimacy with the Lord in knowing that, "Your Father who sees in secret will repay you (Matthew 6:4)." And to the children and husbands of such mothers, may we work hard this weekend and beyond, to make sure they don't feel unnoticed and unappreciated any longer.

May Saint Joseph, who would teach us to honor our Blessed Mother, help us to honor all of our mothers. “Joseph... took his wife into his home.” (Matthew 1:24b). Saint Joseph, Spouse of the Mother of God, Chaste Guardian of the Virgin, pray for us!

In Christ through Mary,

Fr. Daniel P. Gifford
St. Malachy, Pray for us!

Happy Mothers Day

*Blessed be all mothers
Who have come into our lives
Whose kindness, care
and loving Remain with us to

2021 CHURCH DIRECTORY

It's that time again! It has been five years since our 2016 directory for St. Malachy Church! A lot has happened in those five years especially this past year with the many changes in our church and school due to COVID-19. We have gained new members and have unfortunately lost some parishioners. Children who were not yet born at the time of our last photo session will soon be going to kindergarten while others have married or have moved on. Father Pakula, our pastor of twenty-five years, retired and was replaced by Father Daniel Gifford.

We certainly have had enough changes to merit a new directory. Our directories become family keepsakes, a record of our parish history and are an important reference source.

A new directory is possible only if we have a coordinator, someone who will work with other volunteers to be the "Directory Editor". We appeal to anyone who might be interested in being the coordinator to contact Deacon Robert O'Rourke at the church office for further information.

Thank you for your careful consideration of this important and rewarding endeavor.

THANK YOU TO THE HELPERS.

A BiG 'Thank You'!

20+ volunteers worked hard and had lots of fun last Saturday, May 1, sprucing up the parish grounds! It looks great! Thank you so much!

Altar Servers Refresher Day

May 15th 10:30 am
- 12:00 noon for
experienced Altar Servers

Please RSVP to the office at 944-5393 if you are interested.

A training day for first time Altar Servers will be scheduled for fall.

Nominations are being sought for three upcoming Parish Council positions to begin 3-year terms starting in July.

Individuals may submit their own names or recommend others who they think would make a good Council member. Recommendation forms will be available online through the St. Malachy's website, through the weekly update email, and in the Narthex from Sunday, May 2nd until Sunday, May 16th. The Parish Council's task is to help discern and implement the mission of our parish and to serve as liaisons to our standing committees. Parish Council is made up of 9 at large members, 2 youth members, 2 trustees, and Father Gifford. The current members and trustees include Shannon Carroll, Mark Kane, Jen Ulam, Sheila Henson, Darci Dietrich, John Bean, Joyce Webb, Joe Mroz, Ali Rapps, and Ken Werner. Jennifer Higgins, Jim Ries, and Jim Schmedding (who replaced Mike Rowlands) have terms that end June 2021. The council's constitution and by-laws can be seen on our parish website or paper copies can be requested at the parish office. After the recommendation submission deadline, an informational orientation meeting will be held in late May/early June with the parish members who have been recommended and are interested in serving on the council. The selection committee, made up of two members from the council and two non-council Parish members will meet to discern, pray, and select the new members of the council. These members will be presented to Father Gifford and then announced to the parish in June. Then, these new members will start their 3-year term in July.

Here are some final thoughts to consider when making a recommendation or discerning membership for yourself:

- 1.Should have a willingness to grow in holiness
- 2.Should have a deep love for St. Malachy's Parish and its mission
- 3.Should have a desire to serve the parish
- 4.Should have a sense of stewardship
- 5.Should have the ability to collaborate with others
- 6.Should have the desire to continue to learn

Please prayerfully consider your recommendations for Parish Council
