Dear St. Malachy Parishioners,

"Is He not the carpenter's son?" (Matthew 13:55). Saint Joseph, Foster-Father of the Son of God, Zealous Defender of Christ, Model of Workmen, pray for us! In work and in rest, Christ wants to be a part of our lives. It is amazing to consider that the same God who made the heavens and the earth, who led His people through the Red Sea, sustained them in the desert and continually led them through generations of trial and triumph, entered into the home of a poor, humble carpenter. He also wants to enter your life and mine. May our hearts be open to receive Him more deeply into our lives today.

Where in the world is Father Gifford this week?: As mentioned last weekend, I am beginning a two-week period away for the summer, but it's not all vacation. This weekend, I am away for a wedding that I have been committed to for some time, back in Princeton. I will also be visiting some family while in the area and then I leave for my last year of Junior Clergy Days, for the remainder of the week. Junior Clergy is a required part of the ongoing formation and support for all priests ordained 10 years or less. The diocesan Vicar of Junior Clergy organizes an annual retreat in July, as well as a handful of other events throughout the year. It is hard to believe I am now in my tenth year ordained, meaning that this is the last year that I am required, or even allowed, to attend. Time flies.

Principal Search: As you likely know by the Principal Search insert in the bulletin, we have begun a search for a new principal. Mrs. Heather Francque has accepted a teaching position at the local middle school. It is indeed sad to see her move on from her position here, but I wish to express my happiness for her to be able to return to her passion of teaching. Our "loss," as they say, will indeed be a great gain for her students, which includes many of our parish children, including graduates of Saint Malachy School. Just in my short time here at Saint Malachy Parish, I have grown to recognize and appreciate the value of her contributions, which reach far beyond my very brief time. I know I am not alone in expressing my gratitude for all of her service and leadership through the years. Please keep her in your prayers. Please also begin praying for whoever God is calling to serve as the next principal of Saint Malachy School and for the Lord's guidance as we begin the process of searching for that person. Since this process is just beginning, there is no other information to be shared.

In Christ through Mary,
Fr. Daniel P. Gifford
