VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

We are in need of:

- * Table leaders for Confirmation Prep classes
- If you are interested in helping please contact:
Kimberly Souba at ksouba@stmalgeneseo.org

~A Note from Kimberly Souba~

Here we are in the middle of August and I'm catching myself thinking, "Where did this summer go?" Are you asking the same thing?

This week as we are about to embark on another school year, I'm taking some time to pause and reflect on all that transpired within our parish this summer. I am reminded of the energizer bunny commercial from the early 90s and I've definitely felt like that bunny. But, where did all my energy come from? First and foremost, from the Eucharist and then from the generosity and enthusiasm of our parishioners and youth.

In May, Fr. Gifford and I proposed to our youth the "triple threat challenge" which specifically challenged the 9th graders to participate in all three summer events offered to them: Steubenville Conference, Totus Tuus, and either the Nun Run (girls) or Emmaus Days (boys). With all of these options, we had several take advantage of at least two of the three and one of our ninth graders went for the full challenge. Congratulations to Jonathan Freadhoff for being our triple threat challenge winner. Meanwhile Alivia Brown, Jenna Freadhoff, Reese Schaaf, Micah Thoene, Joey Thoene, and Lucy Walck all attended two events earning them the title of double threats.

Our summer climax was our Totus Tuus week, which saw 85 students in grades 1-12 encountering Christ and the Blessed Mother through the Luminous Mysteries of the Rosary, Mass, and other prayers. Everyone had a great time learning, growing, playing games, and the highlight may have been being able to pour sundae toppings on Father Gifford.

How does a disciple live? In God's Presence. This will be our call and response that Father Gifford will introduce to our students, and we will be working hard to become consciously aware that we are always in God's Presence and continue inviting the children to live as a disciple, choosing to live each day in His Presence.

With school beginning this Wednesday, I am looking forward to getting to know more students within the school as I will be teaching music two days a week. If you hear loud chaos coming from the room, do not be alarmed. We will just be having lots of fun while learning to play kazoos, drumming, and recorders as well as singing. We are called to make a joyful noise unto the Lord, aren't we?

CCD and Confirmation Prep registration is now open and available on the parish website. We are blessed to have most of our volunteer catechists returning and welcoming a few new catechists (Mark & Amy Roberts and Isabel Anderson). I look forward to working with them to partner with the parents in forming our students in the faith. CCD and Confirmation Prep will begin after Labor Day.

Also, beginning after Labor Day will be The Rock and Oasis Youth Ministry Groups. Bob Thoene and I have some amazing events planned for the coming year for students to do some parish and community outreaches as well as deepening their faith. Oasis will continue to meet on Wednesday nights while The Rock will meet on Thursday nights.

Do not forget about our Activities Fair August 27-28. Please stop by our tables to learn more and hear from our youth about what they experienced this summer.

Lastly, I would like to personally thank each and every one of you for your warm welcome to me this past year as well as your willingness and graciousness to help whenever I have needed it. St. Malachy is definitely a phenomenal parish to be a part of. We are so blessed.
