A Note From the Pastor

Dear St. Malachy Parishioners,

"I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer" (Luke 22:15). Just as the First Eucharist was the climax of the mission Our Lord, so also the Lord calls us weekly to the altar for the Eucharist as the Source, Summit and Center of our lives as disciples. Let's now begin to look at some of the rest of this journey with Christ. Like any journey, the best place to start is the beginning. Our current parishwide adult study, The Search (which was discussed this past week on Thursday Thoughts), starts with the beginning of the human journey and works its way one step at a time toward Christ and the Church. For the next several weeks in the bulletin, I would like to discuss the content of these steps along the journey outlined in The Search. This bulletin letter series will be called "The Search and Where It Leads You," as it will not only discuss the given episode of The Search, but also other places on FORMED.org where you can go deeper on the same topic.

This study is quite unlike other studies because it seems to begin by reflecting on why we have studies of Scripture and other elements of our faith in the first place! The first session is "WHAT DO YOU SEEK?" It focuses simply on the desire of the human heart. The Christian author C.S. Lewis is known for observing: "If we find ourselves with a desire that nothing in this world can satisfy, the most probable explanation is that we were made for another world." Coming from the author of the inspiring fantasy novels The Chronicles of Narnia, this might explain his appreciation for stories that transport our imaginations to a whole other world. However, this observation is not simply meant to help us understand the value of fiction, but the reality of the human experience. Whether or not someone is pursuing or living a life of faith, they are made by God, who implanted within them desires that lead them back to Him. Starting with this fundamental reality of the desires within the human heart, we begin to understand more fully the meaning of life and also how best to walk with someone toward faith in Christ.

So, where does this step in the search lead you? Where can you find more content to keep going deeper on this same topic? Let me first say that there are many places to go deeper on these topics, both on FORMED and through other worthy Catholic sources. It will be my goal to highlight one or two sources per session (maybe occasionally a third), to which I can personally attest and which can be found on FORMED. In order to go deeper in considering the fundamental desires of the human heart, expressed in human experience, I recommend Happiness! The Series from Robert Spitzer and The Magis Center. In addition to being a Catholic priest and a member of the Society of Jesus (Jesuits), Fr. Spitzer is known and respected in the fields of science and philosophy. As founder of the Magis Center of Reason and Faith, Fr. Spitzer has a very keen ability to keep reason and science in dialogue with faith, so as to both to help people of faith recognize and better communicate the reasonable nature of our faith and also to invite reasonable people who have not yet come to faith to consider the evidence of nature, which points toward the Creator. I highly recommend diving into their production Happiness! The Series.

Abide in God's Presence: Living from the Source, Striving for the Summit, Christ as our Center.

RCIA: In this bulletin, you will find an insert prompting us to consider the various reasons one might consider participating in RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) courses. Like The Search, this process can be enlightening and worthwhile for people on various stages of the journey.

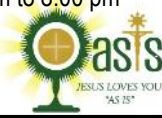

In Christ through Mary,
Fr. Daniel P. Gifford

Liturgy Leanings for October, 2022

October is "Respect Life Month," as well as the "Month of the Most Holy Rosary."

Sunday, October 2, is "Respect for Life Sunday," and October 23 is "World Mission Sunday." "Pennies for Life" will be collected this month.

During these final eight Sundays of the autumn weeks of Ordinary Time, green is the liturgical color.

Saints whose memorials are observed during October:

The memorials of two of the women Doctors of the Church, both Carmelite nuns, are observed this month Saint Therese of the Child Jesus (The Little Flower), on October 1, and Saint Teresa of Jesus (Teresa of Avila), on October 15. Saint Therese lived in Lisieux, France; Teresa was from Avila, Spain. Saint Therese is known for her "little way" of living as a disciple of Jesus: "Follow Jesus with the faith of a child!" Saint Teresa was a gifted writer of contemplative wisdom that continues to inspire anyone who wants a deeper union with God and neighbor.

Other memorials that are observed this month include:

10/2 - The Holy Guardian Angels

10/4 - Saint Francis of Assisi

10/7 - Our Lady of the Rosary

10/11 - Saint Pope John XXIII, who opened the Second Vatican Council on January 25, 1959

10/18 - Saint Luke, the Evangelist, author of a gospel and the Acts of the Apostles;

10/19 - The North American Martyrs, six Jesuit priest missionaries in upstate New York and Canada, who worked among the Huron nation

10/22 - St. Pope John Paul II, whose holiness was shown through his work as a tireless charismatic pastoral leader; canonized by Pope Francis on April 27, 2014.

The Psalms:

Prayers for All Life's Experiences (Virtual) : The Psalms are the heart of Benedictine prayer. They express a variety of life experiences including pain, anguish, joy, and praise. This monthly group shares personal reflections on the Psalms, unpacks the meaning of the Psalms and discovers new ways of applying the Psalms to everyday life.

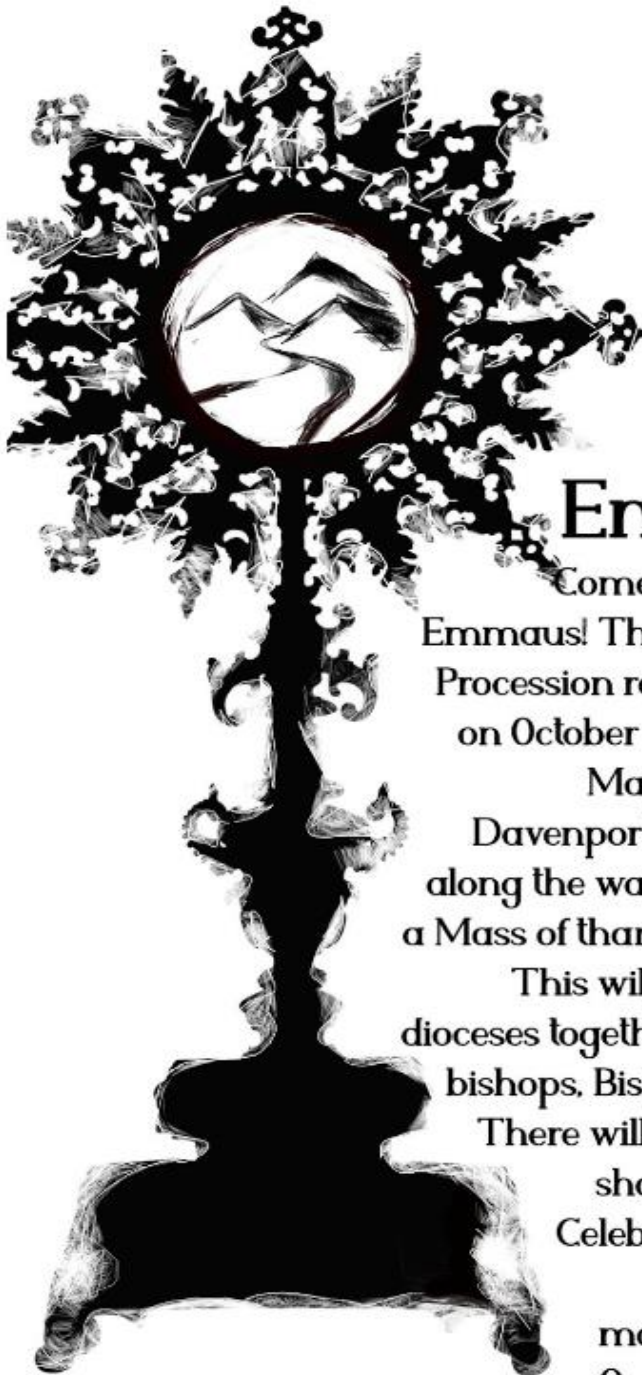

Leader: Sr. Bobbi Bussan, OSB.

Dates: 2nd Thursdays: October 13, and November 10, 2022; January 12, February 9, March 9, April 13, May 11, and June 8, 2023

Time: 9:30-11 am

Fee: $15/mo.
