A Note From the Pastor

Dear St. Malachy Parishioners,

Heavenly Father, ... Help us become unified in the dream you have for us — to be a vibrant and mission-driven Church. Amen. This second part of the Growing Disciples Prayer (in case you missed it last weekend, I will be commenting on a different part of the prayer each week), which Bishop Lou has asked us to pray, helps us to remember this easily forgotten truth: God has a dream, a vision, a plan for us. His vision is what enables us to be what we were made to be and to share that gift with the world. In order to actualize this dream, we must be driven by the mission He entrusted to us - of making disciples - and focused on being who He made us to be. As we begin this New Church Year with Advent, this is a fitting note to begin upon: God has a dream for us. It is important to begin from this awareness so that we make decisions, not simply based upon our own desires or even our own notions of what we think is best. Rather, we seek the Lord's will, guided always by prayer.

On that note, I want to remind you of something that I invited the whole parish to bring to prayer over the course of the past year. Specifically, this past February, I began a Novena to Saint Cecilia (patron saint of music) asking God to send us the person that He has chosen as the next Music Director for Saint Malachy. This was neither the beginning nor the end of the long process of searching for that person and ultimately discerning God's will. When we began that novena, we tried to have a spirit of surrender to God's plan and God's timing. For this reason, I warned us that it may be very soon or it may be much later that we actually find that person. Providentially, this public announcement is coming on the weekend right after the Feast of Saint Cecilia! God is funny sometimes.

Even by the time of beginning that novena, a long search process had already been underway. For years, we have been blessed with music under the leadership of Mary Frimml, who has provided her talents, wisdom and experience to guide and direct our small army of generous and committed volunteers. She has been a gift to us and has done more than can be put into words for our parish and school for decades and I know I speak for both when I express my sincere gratitude to her. Almost two years ago, wisely realizing the need to be able to pass the mantle down to the next generation, Mary began working with me and members of our parish staff to craft a job description and begin the search for a new formal staff position of Music Director. I am pleased for her that she is now able to move into the final phase of mentoring and passing down that mantle.

It is with great joy that I share with you that Lance Carroll has recently accepted the position as our new Parish Music Director. In addition to bringing to the position a love of the Lord, of our faith and of music, Lance also brings much experience as both a parish volunteer in music and other areas and also on staff, as he previously led our High School Youth Ministry program. Over the course of these next couple of months, he will be learning from and working alongside Mary and our other parish musicians, alongside whom he has already been serving for many years. We are so grateful that the Lord has called a parishioner to lead in this important work of enhancing our liturgical prayer with beautiful and fitting music, which both glorifies God and leads hearts into deeper contact with Him. Please keep Lance and all of our parish musicians in your prayers, as this transition takes place and please join me in welcoming him (back) to our parish staff.

Abide in God's Presence: Living from the Source, Striving for the Summit, Christ as our Center. "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer" (Luke 22:15).

In Christ through Mary,

December Liturgy Leanings

December: Advent/Christmas Cycle A Readings

The Liturgical year begins with Advent, which starts in November this year. By the time we get to the first Sunday in December, it is already the Second Sunday of Advent. Since Christmas falls on a Sunday this year, it has created a lot of shifts and changes. Both joyful and repentant, the season prepares us for the coming of Christ as a babe and as a judge at the end of the world. We are asked to prepare, watch, and be ready, a difficult task in this uncertain time. The images of darkness and light parallel the darkening days of December.

November 27: First Sunday of Advent:

December 3: St. Francis Xavier: Jesuit and missionary to Asia, patron of missions.

December 4: Second Sunday of Advent: The voices of Isaiah, St. Paul, and St. Luke call for all of us to prepare for the coming of the Lord!

December 6: St. Nicholas, fourth century bishop remembered for his acts of charity, patron of sailors and children.

December 8: The Immaculate Conception is the patron of the U.S. It is a holy day of Obligation.

December 11: Third Sunday of Advent: Gaudete Sunday is a time of rejoicing, of bearing witness to the coming of our salvation.

December 12: Our Lady of Guadalupe where Our Lady appears as a mestizo young woman to Juan Diego in 1531. She is the Patron of the Americas.

December 13: St. Lucy, Virgin and Martyr, whose name means "light" and is celebrated by Scandinavians as a feast of light in the dark winter.

December 14: St. John of the Cross, Priest and Doctor of the Church, Mystic and poet.

December 18: Fourth Sunday of Advent: As we gather closer to the Nativity, the time of waiting is coming to a close. Therefore the Lord himself will give you this sign: the virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall name him Emmanuel.

December 25: Solemnity of the Nativity of the Lord - Christmas, a new liturgical season, finally arrives. The scriptures may differ depending which mass is attended, but the message is the same: In the mystery of the Incarnation our God became human, and the message of his birth was shared with the world. We, too, must carry the light of Christ to all. "Today is born our Savior, Christ the Lord."

December 26: St. Stephen, First Martyr, and patron of Deacons and altar servers.

December 27: Feast of St. John, the Apostle

December 28: Feast of the Holy Innocents, remembering those innocent children killed by Herod.

December 30: Feast of the Holy Family,
