A Note From the Pastor

Dear St. Malachy Parishioners,

Heavenly Father, ... May each of us live out our vocation in service of the Gospel. Amen. This line from the Growing Disciples Prayer, which we began reflecting on all the way back in November, is a fitting reminder as we return to Ordinary Time. We recall that “ordinary” does not mean boring or mundane. Rather, having just celebrated the Incarnation throughout the season of Christmas, we recall how this celebration was given to make us aware of God With Us in the stuff of our everyday lives. As we live out our vocation every day of our lives, we recognize that we do so in the Presence of the God who loves us, has called us to this life and wants to walk with us through every moment of it! Have you considered how the Lord is calling you to live this day in the service of the Gospel, of His Good News?!

Come, Let Us Adore Him: Our Source, Summit & Center. “I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer” (Luke 22:15).

THANK YOU: Now that the Christmas Season is behind us, please allow me to share a word of sincere gratitude to all who showed me kindness for Christmas, in the form of prayers, notes, cards, monetary gifts, treats and other gifts. In the last week of Advent, I mentioned in a weekday homily how I enjoy watching the pile of presents I would give to my family grow, with a similar joy as I had as a child, watching the presents I might open appear beneath the tree. Yet, it wasn’t long before this pile began to pale in comparison to the gifts people had brought for me. I am overwhelmed and undeserving of such generosity. Since you all represent the Love of God for me, as I am called to do for you, it is a reminder that He will never be outdone in generosity. May God abundantly bless you.

In Christ through Mary,

Fr. Daniel P. Gifford
