A Note From the Pastor

Dear St. Malachy Parishioners,

NOW. "For he says: 'In an acceptable time I heard you, and on the day of salvation I helped you.' Behold, now is a very acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation" (2 Corinthians 6:2). You may recall that these words were in the Lectionary readings for Mass on Ash Wednesday, when our Lenten journey began. Recall the purity and enthusiasm of that beginning. Maybe you had been preparing yourself for Lent and began that morning with a ready heart: Yes, indeed now is the time! Maybe Lent caught you off guard, as can happen so often to many of us and perhaps your 'yes' to Lent was more like: If not now, when? Wherever you were that day, these words of Saint Paul called to you: "Behold, now is a very acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation."

Yet, today, about two and a half weeks have passed since then. Although we are still relatively early in the Lenten journey, still, a great deal can happen in two and a half weeks and that beginning may seem a long time ago. So, let Paul's words speak to you again today. Right now. Now is a very acceptable time. Now is the day of salvation. There is a real need in the present moment to choose again today to pick up your cross with the Lord. Yet, the present moment does not only hold need. There is also power in the present moment, power to begin again, power to choose NOW to pick up the cross, regardless of how many times you may have set it down.

Consider Our Lord's three falls in the Way of the Cross. Rather, consider the three times He rose again to His feet. Rise with Him. Think of Simon, the man from Cyrene who was pressed into service to carry the cross with the Lord. When the present moment holds a heavy cross that we never would have chosen, do we see it as simply being 'pressed into service'? Is it simply an unjust burden flung upon our backs? Or is it an opportunity to rise and stand with Christ, to be close to Him, and to walk with Him?

Do not forget the power of the present moment. Even when it is a desert, the present moment is where we meet Christ. He dwells neither in the past nor in the future. He is with you now. Right now. May each of us choose to be with Him.

Next week, we are all going to have an opportunity to slow down and enter into the moment with Jesus, our Savior. Having finished the three episodes of the Presence Study (which have been playing in the hall at 9:30 each of these first three Sundays of Lent and which can also be viewed in your own time on Formed.org), we will be well prepared for our Explanatory Eucharistic Adoration. This short time of Eucharistic Adoration will delay the conclusion of our Sunday liturgy a bit, as it will begin right after each Mass. But, it won't be long. If you are at all able, I invite you to stay and enter into the moment with Christ. Adoration is simply about being with the Lord, since He has made Himself present to you in such a profound way in the Holy Eucharist. I hope you can join us. Come, let us Adore Him.

Opportunities to Come, Adore Him in the coming weeks:

- Every Monday (3-8 PM) and Thursday (4:30-5:30 PM)
- Saturday, March 18- Sunday, March 19th - Explanatory Eucharistic Adoration, after each weekend Mass

- Monday, March 20: Holy Hour for the Homeless, including a collection for Humility Homes, 7 PM
- First Saturday Mass, Adoration and Rosary: April 1, 8 AM
- April ADORE: Wednesday, April 4, 7:30 PM
- Monday, April 17: Holy Hour for the Hungry, including a collection for the Geneseo-Atkinson Food Pantry, 7 PM

- First Friday Mass, Adoration and Divine Mercy Chaplet: May 5, 8 AM

Come, Let Us Adore Him: Our Source, Summit & Center. "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer" (Luke 22:15).

In Christ through Mary,

Fr. Daniel P. Gifford

PRAYER

All of the saints spent lots of time in prayer. The reason? These wise men and women realized that prayer, ongoing conversation or relationship with God, is essential to living the Christian life. Prayer powers the spiritual life. When we pray, we are better able to let God work through us instead of trying to "do it ourselves."

Some ways to help in your prayer:

Do an examination of conscience every day:

The examination is one of the most powerful practices for spiritual growth. Popularized by St. Ignatius of Loyola, the examination involves setting aside 15 or 20 minutes a day to prayerfully "examine" your day to see where God was present, and to discern how God is calling you to grow.

Get to know Jesus: Get to know Jesus by reading the Gospels this Lent. Have kids read one of the Gospels in an age-appropriate Bible, or read it together as a family over the course of Lent.

Pray the Stations of the Cross: Retrace the steps of Jesus during his suffering and death, (the Via Dolorosa or "Way of the Cross") with your family by praying the Stations of the Cross, either at the church or at home.
