A Note From the Pastor

Dear St. Malachy Parishioners,

Happy Good Shepherd Sunday! On this Fourth Sunday of Easter, we turn our focus toward the voice of the Good Shepherd, who knows and calls His sheep. May each of us hear His voice calling us and have the courage to follow where He leads. The call of the Good Shepherd is known as Vocation, which is really our focus on this Good Shepherd Sunday.

You may recall Vocations is one of the five foundations that we, as members of the Diocese of Peoria, have been invited by our bishop to build our lives upon. Do I live my life as if I trust that the Lord has a plan for my life and is calling me to walk with Him along a specific path? Do I seek Him in prayer? Do I make plans and big decisions with a spirit of prayerful discernment, not simply asking the Lord to bring about my will, my plan, but rather praying Thy Will be done?! When I pray those words in the Our Father, do I mean it? Do I realize that God calls everyone - that God calls me - to holiness?

Here are seven ideas of ways to honor Good Shepherd Sunday this week. I challenge you to do at least four of the seven!

- 1) Spend some time prayerfully reading the Annunciation (Luke 1:26-38) or the Agony in the Garden (Luke 22:39-46). Reflect on Our Lady's "yes" to God's Will in her life and Our Lord's "yes" to the cross. Pray to imitate that "yes" in your life.
- 2) Spend some time praying for an increase in vocations to the Priesthood, Religious Life and Holy Marriage in our own parish (make it personal!). You might offer a rosary, a novena or a time of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament for this intention.
- 3) Talk with a young person about discerning God's will for their life. Encourage them to know that God has a plan for their life, which is the best plan for their happiness, and to pray about knowing and doing His Will in their life. Encourage them to be open to religious life or priesthood. Encourage them to realize the value and importance of living marriage in the Church or to realize that even the single life is not meant to be selfish, but lived in service of the Lord and others.

- 4) Write a letter to a seminarian or someone in religious life, encouraging them, thanking them and letting them know of your prayers.
- 5) Find a way to support a family in need. Maybe you know of a married person who could use prayers and a listening ear. Maybe you can offer someone in need a meal or childcare. Support family life!
- 6) Celebrate your own vocation! If you're married, spend some quality time with your spouse or family. If you're single, express your gratitude to God for this time by reaching out to someone in need. If you think there is any chance you might be called to religious life or priesthood, make plans to go and visit a religious community or a seminary, or to attend a discernment retreat. If you need help with that, let me know.
- 7) Watch the video on Strengthening Vocations, featuring Fr. Chase Hilgenbrink and Sr. M. Bernadette Morse, FSGM: <https://cdop.org/pastoral-plan/five-foundations/>

This weekend calls us all to remember that the Good Shepherd calls each and every one of us. First of all, He calls us all to holiness. As we grow in holiness, the Lord calls us down a particular path. Like calling us forth from the tomb, He calls us to realize that the Resurrection is a mystery to be lived. We enter the mystery together every time that we gather at His altar for the Holy Eucharist, where the Risen Christ is truly with us. Each time that we gather in the coming weeks of the Easter Season, we can enter more deeply into this mystery: Believing the Resurrection, Celebrating the Resurrection and Living the Resurrection.

Opportunities to Come, Adore Him in the coming weeks:

- Every Monday (3-8 PM) and Thursday (4:30-5:30 PM)
- May ADORE: Wednesday, May 3, 7:30 PM
- First Friday Mass, Adoration and Divine Mercy Chaplet: May 5, 8 AM
- First Saturday Mass, Adoration and Rosary: May 6, 8 AM

- Monday, May 15: Holy Hour for the Imprisoned, Including a collection for Aunt Mary's Storybook Project, 7 PM

Come, Let Us Adore Him: Our Source, Summit & Center. "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer" (Luke 22:15).

In Christ through Mary,

Fr. Daniel P. Gifford
St. Malachy, Pray for us

Merciful God, to whom the secrets of the heart lie open, who recognize the just and make righteous the guilty, hear our prayers for our brothers and sisters held in prison; grant that through patience and hope they may find relief in their affliction and soon return unhindered to their families.

HOLY LAND PRESENTATION

Thursday, May 11, 7:00 pm in Room C

Join us for a wonderful presentation on the Holy Land.

Chuck & Mary LoGiudice will be sharing the highlights of their 2018 pilgrimage to the Holy Land.

It will feature the destinations shown in the recent Bible study, Metanoia, on Formed. It is not necessary, however, to have taken the Metanoia study. All will be able to appreciate this program.
It should last approximately two hours and there will be drinks and light refreshments. We know you will enjoy this event and hope to see you there.

PRAYER TO SAINT ISODORE THE FARMER

St. Isidore, you lived a humble life working the land. You attended Holy Mass each morning, which jeopardized the employment that allowed your family to eat. The Lord repaid your love by sending His angels to plow the fields while you were at Church.

Dear Isidore, ask Our Lord Jesus to place deep faith in our hearts and water it each day with your prayers that we may progress in holiness as you did. Pray that as our heart grows in love and humility we may be a living sign of Jesus to those around us.

As a farmer who used his hands to bring forth nourishing food, please ask Jesus to bless us with a bountiful harvest. Pray that our hands and bodies will remain strong that we may farm the land God has given us. Ask Jesus to care for our gardens as he tends our hearts.

Pray that weeds will be kept far from our fields and likewise give us an aversion to sin. Humbly we ask that you carry the petitions we hold in our heart to our most loving and generous Lord.

Amen.

St. Isadore the Farmer
Feast Day: May 15

Saint Isidore, the patron saint of farmers and rural communities, was born in the city of Madrid, Spain, about the year 1110. When he was barely old enough to wield a hoe, Isidore entered the service of John de Vargas, a wealthy landowner from Madrid, and worked faithfully on his estate outside the city for the rest of his life. He married a young woman as simple and upright as himself, who has also become a saint - Maria de la Cabeza. They has one son, who died as a child. Both Isidore and Maria were most charitable and willing to help neighbors in distress and the poor in the city slums.

Isidore had deep religious instincts. He rose early in the morning to go to church and spent many a holiday devoutly visiting the churches of Madrid and surrounding areas. All day long as he walked behind the plow, he communed with God. Isidore love the earth, he was honest in his work, and careful in his farming practices. It is said that domestic beast and birds showed their attachment to him because he was gentle and kind to them. Master de Vargas watched Isidore plowing and saw two angels as his helpers. The saying arose, "Saint Isidore plowing with angels does the work of three farmers."

Saint Isidore died on May 15, 1130; he was canonized on March 22, 1622, with Saints Ignatius of Loyola, Francis Xavier, Teresa of Avila, and Philip Neri. Together, the group is known in Spain as "the five saints." By special decree of the Sacred Congregation of Rites, dated February 22, 1947, Saint Isadore was constituted as the special protector of Catholic Rural Life, and American Farmers. How appropriate for the Catholic farm family to be devoted to this simple and saintly couple, who, like farmers everywhere, are "partners with God," furnishing to the world food and fiber.

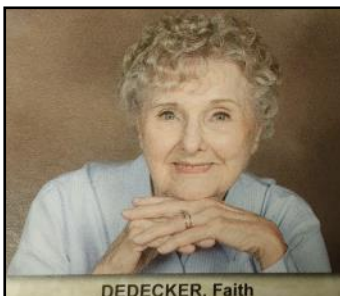

VOLUNTEERS OF THE YEAR

A true disciple is not just a learner but a follower. She is one who applies what she has learned. She freely gives time and labor for community service. Community service to the Church and service to the Civic Community. This year we have selected two women in the Altar & Rosary Society that fit this definition very appropriately. They're Faith DeDecker and Ruth Fleming.

Last Wednesday, five other Altar & Rosary Members escorted Faith & Ruth to a celebration with Bishop Tyłka. Rosary, May Crowning, Mass and luncheon filled the day with fellowship, community and joy with other Diocesan volunteers.

When you see either Ruth or Faith, tell them Congratulations and thank them for their longtime service.
