PRaise BAND

Musicians Needed!

We are looking for musicians and singers who would like to join our St. Malachy band to perform at the Praise Band Jam in the City Park on September 17th. Our band will be performing 4 contemporary Christian songs, as one of five bands participating in this 10th annual event. If you are even the slightest bit interested, please contact Lance Carroll.

If you are interested in having a text copy of the weekend Homily, it is usually available. Please contact the office to request one.

A Note From the Pastor

Dear St. Malachy Parishioners,

“Be attentive to (the prophetic message that is altogether reliable), as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.” (2 Peter 1). These words from our Second Reading this weekend remind me of my experience over vacation a couple of weeks ago, watching the sun rise over the ocean while visiting family in Virginia Beach (see page 5). And as beautiful as that sight was, upon returning, I have also been struck by how beautiful the sky is, especially at sunrise or sunset, even right here in Illinois! We do well to keep our eyes peeled for these glimpses of beauty around us. In such glimpses within creation, we see a glimmer of the beauty of the Creator.

And yet, the beauty that Saint Peter is talking about is something more. It is the beauty of a soul coming alive by the Truth of God’s Word attentively received within the human heart, enlightening the mind, stirring the affections and guiding the will. This is the morning star that rises in our hearts, when that new day dawns. It is the very life of God poured into us, transforming us into the saints we were made to be. This might be called our own transfiguration, in which the glory hidden within us comes into full light. This is no glory of our own and yet it is given to us, as the Lord made us to be conformed to His image and so reflect His glory, shining His light into the world.

So, let us indeed be attentive. Let our hearts be awake to the Word of God spoken to us. May every image of beauty that our senses behold be a reminder to us of this morning star, still yet to rise within our hearts, so that it may prompt us to remain attentive to the Lord.

One of the great glimpses of beauty we see at Saint Malachy is when the community comes together to joyfully share life together. Summer Fest is a great example of this. Gratitude fills my heart when I recall the memories of this event over the past two years. Just two weeks from now, we will be celebrating this year’s Summer Fest on Saturday, August 19. Remember, this means that Mass that day will be moved up to 4 PM, so that we can begin the festivities afterwards. I hope that you can join us and bring a friend. All are welcome. This is one of the great moments of the year to invite our neighbors to come and see.

By that time point, Saint Malachy School will already be in session. That same week, CCD and Confirmation Prep will be back in session, followed shortly by Adult Bible Studies and Youth Ministry. And we will be relaunching the Year of Missionary Discipleship, the second year of the Eucharistic Revival, with Mission Month (September 2023). More information will be coming soon about that. We have much to look forward to! May we rediscover His Love and seek to make Him more widely known! “They set out at once and returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them... Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of the bread” (Luke 24:33,35).

In Christ through Mary,

Fr. Daniel P. Gifford
St. Malachy, Pray for us!

“BE ATTENTIVE TO (THE PROPHETIC MESSAGE THAT IS ALTOGETHER RELIABLE) ... UNTIL DAY DAWNS AND THE MORNING STAR RISES IN YOUR HEARTS.”

The conflicts of the early Christians in Corinth are in many ways similar to our struggles today as Christians. With Divisions, immorality, persecution, and other trials of the faithful, the message of St. Paul to the Corinthians is a much-needed message for our own times This First Corinthians bible study explores the key elements that the apostle Paul introduced to a new and growing Church. St. Paul taught the Corinthians about the nature of grace and the Church as the Body of Christ. In addition, he introduced the Corinthian Christians to the most powerful gift of all, the Eucharist, which along with Christian virtue leads to a life of joy.

Please contact the office if you would like to participate in the study and order a workbook. 309-944-5393
