A Note From the Pastor

Dear St. Malachy Parishioners,

“As with the riches of a banquet shall my soul be satisfied...” (Psalm 62).

Every time we gather at the altar for the Holy Eucharist, the Lord can return our focus to the truth that we so easily forget: He alone is the One who satisfies our souls. This is one of the reasons we come to Mass and it's also a very good reason to come to Eucharistic Adoration. As we gaze upon Jesus, the Bread of Life, our hearts hunger for the One who truly satisfies them. As the old hymn from early in the 20th Century says, we “turn (our) eyes upon Jesus and the things of the earth will grow strangely dim in the light of His glory and grace” (Turn Your Eyes Upon Jesus, Helen H. Lemmel).

This is part of why this gaze of love that we experience in adoration, where we encounter Christ pouring Himself out for us, can move our hearts toward generosity. We begin to realize how little we need the things that we so often pine after in this life and also how much we have been given. And our hearts are moved to pour ourselves out with Him. This has been part of the idea behind a great custom that we have practiced throughout 2023: Works of Mercy Holy Hours.

After Mission Month, we announced three final Works of Mercy Holy Hours for the year. Two were repetitions of ones we had already done, but which are perpetual needs and are pertinent to the months of October and December, respectively: The Holy Hour for Life and The Holy Hour for the Hungry. In November, we will offer one which has never been offered before: The Holy Hour for Grieving Parents (Monday, November 20). In our Eucharistic Revival Committee, as we were discussing how all of these are inspired by one or more of the Works of Mercy (hence, the name), the question came up: How could we do one for “to bury the dead”? What kind of organizations help to meet this need? It would be a very appropriate focus for November. After a bit of research, we were directed toward the Tears Foundation. As they state on their website, “The TEARS Foundation seeks to compassionately lift a financial burden from families who have lost a child by providing funds to assist with the cost of burial or cremation services. We also offer parents comprehensive bereavement care in the form of grief support groups and peer companions.”

This is a fitting follow-up to the Holy Hour for Life, as the children who are grieved by their parents include those lost while still in the womb, which is a unique grief that is often misunderstood and underappreciated. At any stage, the loss of a child is a deep and profound pain, but it is a pain known by many. Among them is our Blessed Mother, whose heart was pierced by a sword as she watched the Heart of her Son be pierced by the spear of the centurion. May Our Lady of Sorrows intercede for all who grieve the loss of their children. And may Saint John intercede for us to offer compassionate support to one another whenever we have the opportunity.

The Lord is calling us to keep our eyes fixed on Him as we strive to shine His Light into the world. In this Year of Missionary Discipleship, may He truly bring us back to new and abundant life, which sends us out to make Him more widely known. “They set out at once and returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them... Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of the bread” (Luke 24:33,35).

In Christ through Mary,
