A Note From the Pastor

Dear St. Malachy Parishioners,

"Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." (Mark 1). The Lord speaks these words to the fishermen who became his first disciples (Andrew and Simon, followed shortly afterward by James and John). Yet, these words speak to the call of missionary discipleship placed upon all of our hearts. Jesus invites us to follow Him. And in the very moment of that call, He gives us an idea what the mission will be.

And what a curious image we are given, in order to understand this image: fishing for souls! This image often makes me think of my days camping in Boys Scouts. I loved hanging out down at the docks, sometimes with a fishing pole. Yet, I don't recall ever successfully catching a fish. Perhaps this is because I only vaguely remember lazily casting a line into the water. I was not intentional about trying to catch a fish. Perhaps if my dinner depended on it, it might be a different story. What if we evangelized like our lives depended on it? What if we understood the stakes? What if we understood that the mission entrusted to us is for the eternal salvation of souls? Might it be a different story?

And yet, one other detail strikes me. The fishermen to whom Our Lord was speaking were not accustomed to fishing with a pole, but with a net. I recently read a very thought-provoking reflection upon this, inviting us to consider the parish as one big net - one coordinated effort working together to save souls in our local community. We are not simply a set of isolated individual lines cast into the water lining the shore, some lazily and others with great effort and intentionality. We are called to cast a net together, as one body working together. In this new year, would you join me in praying that this may become more of a clear, evident and effective reality in the coming year and beyond?

This Year of Missionary Discipleship should be, like all things, immersed in prayer and driven by it. So, let us pray to the master of the harvest to send us all out as laborers in his harvest, working together in one concentrated effort. At the altar, may He truly bring us back to new and abundant life, which sends us out to make Him more widely known. "They set out at once and returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them... Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of the bread" (Luke 24:33,35).

In Christ through Mary,

Dear St. Malachy family,

I just wanted to reach out and say thank you so much for all the support, donations, and prayers I have received thus far following my parish talk back in December concerning mission opportunities. I had a goal of $1500 to reach to be fully funded for my trip to Peru this spring break, and thanks to all of you, I have not only reached that goal but exceeded it by over $1100 and counting. Because the donations are going to the organization of FOCUS and not just me personally, the excess $1100 will be going to my peers who may now have the opportunity to join us on our mission in Peru. In fact, there's one girl at the Newman Center who wasn't even going to go originally, but is now going with the boost of some of the extra donations from this parish! I am so thankful to have such a loving supportive community behind me as I navigate through life's many opportunities and challenges. Thanks again for your support! Keep me in your prayers as I go to Peru this March and know of my continued prayers for all of you as well! If you have any questions concerning donations, my past mission in Ecuador, my future mission in Peru, or anything else, please don't hesitate to reach out to me via email: mirandaroemer03@yahoo.com.

Thanks and God bless,
Miranda Roemer

St Malachy Memories

School Memories by Nathan Vorac

My name is Nathan Vorac and I attended St. Malachy School from 1991-1998. I will always remember all of my teachers during my time there, most of whom I still see on a regular basis to this day (one of them being my mother). I still remember the letter people from kindergarten that helped us learn how all the letters sound. Listening and crying when we were read Old Yeller in 3rd grade. I first learned to love playing chess during the tournaments we played in 5th and 6th grade. I remember being Harold Angel in the Christmas program my 6th grade year, my one and only stage performance. Thanks to my teachers, along with Father Mahoney and Father Pakula, I was given the foundation both in academics and in my faith to help me become the person I am today. The friends I made during my time there are some of the best anyone could ask for. Some of them were in my wedding, are godparents for my daughters, and will continue to be huge parts of my family's lives. I am very thankful for the time I was able to spend at St. Malachy and I am grateful that my three daughters are now students at the school. I was even able to share a teacher, (Mrs. Goethals, Kindergarten) with one of them. I know that by sending my girls to the same school I was fortunate enough to attend, they will have the same amazing experience there that I enjoyed.
