A Note From the Pastor

Dear St. Malachy Parishioners,

"Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and enter into his glory?" (Luke 24:26). All of the Scriptures had been leading up to this. Not only would

God keep His promise to send us a savior who would deliver us, but He would suffer out of love for us. And the glory into which He would be entering would be far greater than imagined: Resurrection from the dead! This is the Good News. Let us dive in with our whole hearts!

Welcome to the second step of our Three Step Journey of Lent: Dive Into the Good News! This is ultimately what Our Lord was doing in our theme verse. Some have referred to His explanations to the two disciples on the way to Emmaus as a "Bible study on the road." However, perhaps more accurately, it is also often referred to as the Liturgy of the Word. He prepared them for the encounter with Him at the breaking of the bread, when their eyes would finally be opened to recognize Him, by breaking open the Scriptures for them. He still does the same for us today at every Mass.

There are many ways we can dive into the Good News, as long as it involves praying with the Scriptures and especially the Gospel. In particular, I want to thank and encourage everyone who has been joining in on the Gospel of Mark Challenge. Of course, the counting is still running at the time that I am writing this letter, but currently we already have 182 people participating. What a joy to be sharing this experience together! Let us remember to pray for one another.

It should be noted that when we read Scripture, it should never be either merely casual or merely academic. We read to listen to the Word of God. What does this mean? We should always begin in prayer. A simple prayer such as: "Come, Holy Spirit. Help me to set aside distraction and focus all of my thoughts, affections and will on You during this time that I may hear

Your Voice and respond in loving humility, gratitude and obedience. Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening." (1 Samuel 3:10)

Read slowly, pay attention both to the content of the reading and to how your heart is responding. When a particular word, image or passage moves your heart, notice it. If possible, pause for a brief moment even then and rest in it. Regardless, make a note so that you can come back to it and spend time there in prayer.

Saint Ignatius of Loyola taught us of the principle of repetition: when we find a place where the Lord has moved our hearts, we should consider it like discovering a well, to which we can return often. Especially when we are moving at a fast pace of one chapter per day, it is important to come back and spend time with those passages, words and images that have especially moved the heart, to draw from those deep and endless wells where the Lord meets us. Try to identify at least one passage per week, to which you will come back and spend quality time. The depths waiting for us within the Good News are beyond imagining. Let us dive in with abandon.

CAR PARTY: This weekend, Saint Malachy School Parents Club is hosting our annual Car Party fundraiser. This is a fantastic event that brings together the larger school community to support the school that we love. I want to express my deep thanks to Parents Club for their leadership and organization of this event and for all who have attended and/or supported it. Just having celebrated our 100 Year Anniversary a few weeks ago, it is such a great joy to be reminded and to celebrate that the support that has brought us to this point is still alive and well.

In Christ through Mary,

Helping Women and Babies

We are always called to care for those less fortunate than ourselves. The school students and staff, CCD and Confirmation Prep students, as well as the Oasis and The Rock students, collected baby items for the Christ Child Society of the Quad Cities, to make layettes for the Women’s Choice Center, as well as the Genesis Birthing Center.

Mary Anne Dockery-Jackson, President of the Christ Child Society was present to talk to The Rock about the organization and what they do as well as teach them how to make a layette. The students made a total of 38 layettes to be given out to mothers in need.

Dear Kimberly:

Christ Child Society would like to express our deep appreciation for the awesome contributions from St. Malachy's parish! All of those diapers, board books, clothing, and infant care items will soon be on their way to babies and children who need them.

We understand that CCD, Confirmation Prep, and Youth Ministry were all involved, as well as students and staff at the school. We can't thank you all enough for this amazing collection.

It warms our hearts to know that young people care enough to support our efforts to aid newborns and needy families in our area.

Please make sure that all who contributed are acknowledged. And, thank YOU so much for all you do!

Warmest regards,

Ideas to Enhance Your Lenten Journey

Lent is the season between Ash Wednesday and the start of the Triduum. Ash Wednesday prepares us for the hard season of Lent when we are reminded of our humanity and our total reliance on God.

The Church encourages spiritual practices or disciplines during Lent such as prayer, Bible studies or devotions, fasting, and almsgiving.

Adding spiritual practices during Lent can instill habits of faith that provide an experiential understanding of spiritual truth and nurture the inclination to sustain a Lenten practice throughout the year or for a lifetime.

Some ideas that can help enhance your Lenten journey may include -but are not limited to:

Prayer

- Do an examination of conscience daily if you don't already
- Say the rosary each day for the intentions of someone else
- Keep a Lenten Journal

Fasting

- Give up sweets, video games, soda, social media, or other creature comforts
- Turn off radios, music players, eat a meal in silence
- Be one with the poor and sleep on the floor

Almsgiving

- Make a giving jar with acts of kindness
- Donate to a charity
- Do chores for a sibling
