A Letter from the Pastor

Dear St. Malachy Parishioners,

"When a woman is in labor, she is in anguish because her hour has arrived; but when she has given birth to a child, she no longer remembers the pain because of her joy that a child has been born into the world." (John 16:21). In this Christmas Season, we have celebrated the joy that came with the Child that was born into a world waiting, longing and hoping for its Savior. After centuries of hope in the midst of suffering, centuries of both victory and defeat, famine and plenty, slavery and freedom, exile and return, they still found themselves longing for the One who was promised. When He finally arrived, He was something even more than they had hoped. God Himself had come down to be with us and to save us from our sin.

Still, they would not understand this immediately. In fact, there was a kind of hiddenness in the way in which He came to us. Gradually, He revealed to us who He is. Certain events have been identified as moments of particular revelation. These have been called epiphanies. Last weekend, we celebrated the Feast of the Epiphany, a definite high point in the Christmas Season. This feast day acknowledges three epiphanies: the adoration of the magi, the baptism of the Lord and miracle at the wedding feast in Cana, although it focuses primarily on the first one.

This weekend, we conclude the Christmas Season by celebrating the second epiphany: the baptism of the Lord. On this final celebration of Christmas, we might remember that great hymn, What Child Is This? This question has driven us through the Christmas Season, as we have wondered at the mystery of the identity of this Child whose birth is still celebrated 2000 years later! This weekend, we remember the day that God, the Father answered the question. What Child is this? "This is My Beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." May His Name be praised now and forever.

Merry Christmas!

A MONTH WITH MARY: This month, I am encouraging us all to grow in our relationship with our Blessed Mother, who brought our Savior into the world. From the cross, He entrusted her to His beloved disciples with the words, "Behold your mother." John responded by taking her into his home, an echo of the act of obedience previously demonstrated by Joseph, when the angel beckoned him, "Do not be afraid to take Mary into your home." Let us respond by taking her into our hearts and our homes, as a true spiritual mother, in hopes that our hearts may be united in love with her maternal heart, which is united in love with the Heart of God. While some are currently preparing for a consecration, all are encouraged to pray the rosary each day. A schedule can be found in the bulletin for your convenience.

AWAY AT CLASS THIS WEEK: As you may recall, I am currently enrolled in a Spiritual Direction Training Program through the Institute for Priestly Formation. This consists of nine sessions at Mundelein Seminary, spread out over three years. The third session is this coming week. I will leave in the afternoon after the last Mass this weekend and will return Friday evening. So, I will return in time for the Saturday morning prayer service, in connection with the Marian Consecration. Please pray for me and for all of those in the class, as I will be praying for you. See you next weekend.

In Christ through Mary,

A GLOBAL OUTREACH PROJECT

We are 4 women from the Quad Cities who have come together to form a stained-glass ministry to raise money for clean water projects in under-developed countries. Our goal is to raise $2,500 each year by making stained-glass heart sun catchers. We are now starting our twelfth year and have raised over $33,000 so far.

We will be selling these hearts for $10 each at St. Malachy Church on Saturday, February 8th, and Sunday, February 9th. We will be available after all Masses. All proceeds from our sale will be sent to Father Charles Niwagaba to be used for wells in his village of Buhinda in Uganda.

These hearts make great Valentine's gifts and gifts for any special occasion throughout the year. Your support of this worthwhile cause will be greatly appreciated. Hearts can also be ordered by contacting Therese Roman at (563) 271-5176.

Thank you!
